

Take Responsibility

This guide goes along with "Q on queue – Episode 015: Take Responsibility", available at www.qonqueue.com and through most major podcast sites and apps.

RESPONSIBILITY (def.)

- The state or fact of having a duty to deal with something or having control over someone
- The opportunity or ability to act independently and make decisions without authorization

When reflecting on our own responsibilities, do we:

- A. Take responsibility when we need to do so
- B. Tend to blame others or pass the buck on to other people

"If you want to be successful, you have to take 100% responsibility for everything that you experience in your life... that means giving up all your excuses, all the reasons why you can't and why you haven't up until now, and all your blaming of outside circumstances."

- Jack Canfield

God gave us responsibility from the beginning – Genesis 1:27-29 (NIV)

To shirk responsibility is to deny who God made you to be.

Responsibilities are important, regardless of how big or small they are.

How did Adam and Eve treat the responsibility they were given? - Genesis 3:8-13 (NIV)

What if Jesus had not taken responsibility for the sin of man? He accepted 100% responsibility for the reason He came to earth.

Jesus accepted 100% responsibility. Shouldn't we do the same? - 1 Peter 2:21 (AMP)

It's all about living life so God gets the glory and we get the joy!

The only power your past has over your future is the power that you give it.

Press on in the life God has destined you for and called you to live. - Philippians 3:13-14 (ESV)

"A leader can give up anything – except final responsibility."

- John Maxwell
